ORADELL, NJ, October 5, 2015 – Lakeland Bank has been a long-standing supporter of Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County (Habitat Bergen). Therefore, it comes as no surprise that a team of volunteers from Lakeland Bank decided to join Habitat Bergen on the job site installing insulation and dry wall, and painting in two Hackensack homes as part of the New Jersey Bankers Association's (NJBankers) "Bankers Build" program.

Jersey bankers have a strong commitment to the communities they serve and "Bankers Build" is just one more way to support their neighbors. With so much still to do, our members are rolling up their sleeves and volunteering their services to help rebuild after the damage incurred by Superstorm Sandy,” said John E. McWeeney, Jr., NJBankers President and CEO. “In addition, members will make a contribution of $1,000 for each bank’s team to help purchase construction materials.”

“As a community bank, we stay connected to the communities we serve by our volunteer efforts and contributions,” said Debra Zimmerly, Lakeland Bank Vice President and CRA Officer. “Working with an organization such as Habitat for Humanity fits perfectly with the Bank’s philosophy that affordable quality housing is a key component for a healthy community.”

The Bankers Build initiative has enabled the affiliate to stay on track with completing its critical home repairs as the SuperStorm Sandy recovery program winds down. Habitat Bergen is proud to have completed 54 Superstorm Sandy critical home repairs to date throughout Little Ferry, Moonachie and Hackensack.

“NJBankers and its associate members, including Lakeland Bank, have been invaluable contributors to our Sandy Restoration Program,” said Jacey Raimondo, Habitat Bergen Executive Director. “It’s through partnerships like Lakeland Bank’s that Habitat Bergen continues to accomplish great things. Not only do they support our affiliate on a corporate level, but through the commitment of its employee volunteers. We are proud to have Sue Scimone-Bellini, the Senior Vice President, Regional Administrator of Lakeland Bank’s eastern region, serve as a member of our Board of Directors, which makes this ‘Bankers Build’ even more meaningful.”

About Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County

The goal of Habitat Bergen is to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the face of the earth by working in partnership with people in need. Using volunteer labor and donated funds and materials, Habitat Bergen builds or rehabilitates simple, decent houses and sells them to low-income families at cost, but with no interest added. Habitat Bergen is a people-to-people partnership, which joins all of us together regardless of race, nationality, religion, or socioeconomic status. That partnership begins with the homeowner families (partner families). Habitat Bergen is not a giveaway program, but a joint venture in which those who benefit from the housing ministry are involved in the work at various levels. They help with the construction of their own home, as well as the houses of their neighbors.
