The Westwood Methodist Church recently donated $1,095 to Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County. The church raised the funds through a number of events.

They hosted a "Beach Party" in March that included activities such as beach volleyball, Lego castle-building, painting seashells and a contest for best beach attire.

In May, to celebrate the diverse cultures that make up the Pascack Valley, they held a Cultural Night that included Irish step dancing, Chinese fan dancing, Indian Bollywood dancing, gospel music and bagpipe music.

Reverend Wayne Jones presented the check to Habitat Bergen's director of marketing, Nicole Murray. He said, "We are pleased to work with Habitat Bergen in continuing recovery work from Superstorm Sandy. Much has been accomplished but there is still much more to do. We look forward to the day when we can say the recovery work is finally done."

Jacey Raimondo, Habitat Bergen's executive director, said, "We are very fortunate to have Westwood United Methodist Church as faith-based partner. Their parish has proactively hosted fundraising events on behalf of our affiliate which have been greatly supportive of our Superstorm Sandy Restoration Program. We look forward to growing a lasting partnership with Westwood United Methodist Church."
