Mariner's Bank Team

ORADELL, NJ, July 10, 2015 – A team of ten volunteers from Mariner's Bank spent the day volunteering with Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County (Habitat Bergen) in Little Ferry and Moonachie, NJ, as part of the New Jersey Bankers Association's (NJBankers) "Bankers Build" program.

Over the course of the summer, NJBankers and its members associated with fifteen banks will volunteer on Habitat Bergen's job sites for fifteen days. In addition to their hands-on support, members of the association have generously committed to donate $1,000 per team build to Habitat Bergen.

"New Jersey bankers have a strong commitment to the communities they serve and "Bankers Build" is just one more way to support their neighbors. With so much still to do, our members are rolling up their sleeves and volunteering their services to help rebuild after the damage incurred by Superstorm Sandy," said John E. McWeeney, Jr., NJBankers president and CEO.

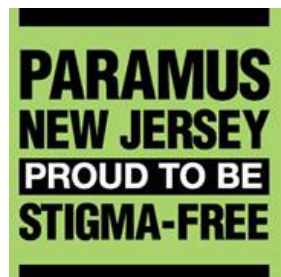

According to Frank R. Giancola, President and CEO, "Mariner's Bank has a long history of serving the community and we continue to focus on community involvement. We take pride in serving our customers and neighbors in ways that make our community a better place. I can think of no better way to serve our community, than helping those who have lost so much get back home”.

“Mariner’s Bank and the NJBankers are a great example of partnership at its best with organizations joining together to provide the opportunity to help homeowners effected by Superstorm Sandy complete their critical home repairs,” said Jacey Raimondo, Habitat Bergen Executive Director. “Mariner’s Bank is the second of fifteen teams to join our worksite as part of our Bankers Build program. There are still families in Bergen County that are living in homes yet to be repaired by Superstorm Sandy and our affiliate is focused on helping as many families as possible during the remainder of the year as the recovery efforts wind down. Mariner’s Bank’s commitment to volunteerism and their financial donation enables us to accomplish this goal.”

About Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County

The goal of Habitat Bergen is to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the face of the earth by working in partnership with people in need. Using volunteer labor and donated funds and materials, Habitat Bergen builds or rehabilitates simple, decent houses and sells them to low-income families at cost, but with no interest added. Habitat Bergen is a people-to-people partnership, which joins all of us together regardless of race, nationality, religion, or socioeconomic status. That partnership begins with the homeowner families (partner families). Habitat Bergen is not a giveaway program, but a joint venture in which those who benefit from the housing ministry are involved in the work at various levels. They help with the construction of their own home, as well as the houses of their neighbors.

About the New Jersey Bankers Association

Founded more than 111 years ago, the New Jersey Bankers Association (NJBankers) is a trade association representing 105 banks and more than 245 service providers. NJBankers provides a variety of services to members including government relations at both the state and national levels; education and professional development, and employee health and welfare insurance benefit programs through its licensed insurance brokerage facility, Bankers Cooperative Group.
