"Bankers Build" program.

Community Bank of Bergen County volunteers as part of the New Jersey Bankers Association "Bankers Build" program with Habitat Bergen

ORADELL, NJ, August 12, 2015 – A team of ten volunteers from Community Bank of Bergen County (CBBC) recently spent the day installing stairs and trim with Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County (Habitat Bergen) in Little Ferry and Moonachie homes as part of the New Jersey Bankers Association's (NJBankers)

Throughout the summer, NJBankers along with associated members of various banks, will volunteer on Habitat Bergen's job sites. Along with their hands-on support, members of the association have generously committed to donate $1,000 per team build to Habitat Bergen.

"Many of us were spared the misfortune that Superstorm Sandy brought to our neighboring communities. Working with Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County is a reminder that although the storm happened almost three years ago, there are still people whose lives have not returned to normal. We must continue to help those affected," said

Peter Michelotti, Community Bank of Bergen County President & CEO.

“New Jersey bankers have a strong commitment to the communities they serve and “Bankers Build” is just one more way to support their neighbors. With so much still to do, our members are rolling up their sleeves and volunteering their services to help rebuild after the damage incurred by Superstorm Sandy,” said John E. McWeeney, Jr., NJBankers President and CEO. “In addition, members will make a contribution of $1,000 for each bank’s team to help purchase construction materials.”

“Community Bank of Bergen County is the third team to join our affiliate as part of the ‘Bankers Build’ program. Similar to the NJBankers’ values, CBBC proved their dedication as active corporate citizens,” said Jacey Raimondo, Habitat Bergen Executive Director. “Their employees demonstrated their core values of Unity and Community while in action on our job site.”

About Habitat for Humanity of Bergen County

The goal of Habitat Bergen is to eliminate poverty housing and homelessness from the face of the earth by working in partnership with people in need. Using volunteer labor and donated funds and materials, Habitat Bergen builds or rehabilitates simple, decent houses and sells them to low-income families at cost, but with no interest added. Habitat Bergen is a people-to-people partnership, which joins all of us together regardless of race, nationality, religion, or socioeconomic status. That partnership begins with the homeowner families (partner families). Habitat Bergen is not a giveaway program, but a joint venture in which those who benefit from the housing ministry are involved in the work at various levels. They help with the construction of their own home, as well as the houses of their neighbors.

About the New Jersey Bankers Association

Founded more than 111 years ago, the New Jersey Bankers Association (NJBankers) is a trade association representing 105 banks and more than 245 service providers. NJBankers provides a variety of services to members including government relations at both the state and national levels; education and professional development, and employee health and welfare insurance benefit programs through its licensed insurance brokerage facility, Bankers Cooperative Group.
